Office: (713) 270-9434

Requirements for Marriage License to be issued in Texas are as follows:

1. Both applicants must appear together and submit proof of age and identity by valid state driver's license, valid state ID Card, U.S. Military ID, U.S. passport or visa, or any certificate of license issued by this state, another state, the U.S. government or a foreign government. Proof of ID must include a photo, name and date of birth.
2. Each applicant is also required to present an official document showing applicant's name and Social Security number. The name must be the same as it appears on the proof of identification. If you do not have proof of your Social Security number, contact the Social Security Administration.
3. The cost of the Marriage License is $72.00. Couples who participate in premarital counseling through a certified Texas Health and Human Services Commission provider called Twogether in Texas must present their certificate of course completion at the time they apply for the marriage license; the certificate must be used within one year of issuance. The cost of the marriage license to applicants who have attended the aforementioned premarital counseling is $12.00. Cash payment is required for marriage license fees; you may not use a check or credit card.
4. The legal age to purchase a Marriage License in the State of Texas is 18. The state does not require a blood test. If either applicant has been recently divorced from any party other than the co-applicant, the state requires a 30 day waiting period from the date of final decree unless waived by the court. Applicants are required to submit a certified copy of Final Decree showing name change if different from current identification.
5. The license is valid for 30 days from the date of purchase, during which time the ceremony must occur, or the license will expire. There is a 72-hour waiting period from the time the license is purchased until the ceremony can be performed. Active duty military personnel are exempt from the 72-hour waiting period, with proof of active military duty status. Couples who have attended premarital counseling through a certified Texas Health and Human Services Commission provider are exempt from the 72-hour waiting period, upon presentation of their certificate of completion to the officiator (pastor, judge, etc.)
6. Applicants between the ages of 16 and 18 must be accompanied by their parents or person authorized by court order to sign legal consent, and the minor must have a certified copy of their birth certificate, valid photo ID, and documentary proof of Social Security number. If parents are divorced, the parent that was granted the independent right to consent to marriage must appear and submit a certified copy of divorce decree in order to sign legal consent for marriage of a minor.
7. It is your responsibility to arrange the appointment with the official or Minister who is going to conduct your ceremony.
8. Following the ceremony, the person officiating must complete the ceremony section of the license and sign it, and then return it to the county clerk for recording. The original license will be returned to you once it has been recorded.
9. You may obtain certified copies of your marriage license at any time after it has been recorded. Certified copies cost contact your local county clerk's office for prices.

If you have any questions not addressed here, please call your local County Clerk's.
